

Westonbirt House

WESTONBIRT
— HOUSE —

Welcome

One of the finest examples of Victorian architecture and gardens in the Cotswolds, Westonbirt House is set in the most beautiful and expansive parkland estate. A spectacular mansion house designed by architect Lewis Vulliamy in the 1860s it is the perfect venue for business events, private parties and residential stays.

Formerly the private home of the Holford Family, Westonbirt House is both grand from the outside and architecturally rich within. With stunning gardens, and its own 9-hole golf course just a short stroll away, it's the perfect place to host an event.

Parties and Events designed by you

An event at Westonbirt House is designed by you, and our experienced in-house team will work with you to tailor the best option from your brief. They will also be on hand throughout the day to ensure everything runs smoothly. We look forward to welcoming you and your party to Westonbirt House.
